

The Charlotte Observer

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 2007

www.charlotte.com

Price varies by county | 50¢

The Charlotte Observer

Business

www.charlotte.com +

THE INSIDER

WHO'S THAT WITH JEFF? SEE BELOW.

Jeff Elder

Would Mom sell lemons?

What's that creeping ever near in the shadows of our guilt? MOTHER'S DAY. Here's an episode of "My Mother The Car Saleswoman." In 2004, Leslie Vander Baan opened Automotive Consignment, a for-sale-by-owner dealership on Indy Blvd. Leslie is a car czarina, but she needed help. And her mom, Donna Harris, didn't know how to pop a hood. She was working as director of children's ministry at her church. But moms will prevail! Today Donna and Leslie are a team - mom even does vehicle appraisals.

On Monday, look for photos of the moms of notable Charlotteans.